

THE SMOKEY JOE SHOW

“LITTLE BUILDINGS”

The long awaited album, “Little Buildings”, recorded by a very original Americana band, The Smokey Joe Show, is enjoying its current national release. The album includes all “homemade” lyrics penned by Smokey Joe Peoples and expressed musically by The Smokey Joe Show.

“These folks offer a rare combination of intelligence, humor, and real emotion in their performances. The musically expressive writing of Joe Peoples is superbly executed by this tight group of musicians.”

- Patrick Crawford - Station Manager WUWF 88.1- Radio Live, June 2006

University of West Florida, Pensacola, FL

“This group of people is one of the most interesting groups of people I have met in a long time.”

- Dave Carter - DJ for WETS 89.5 Studio One - University of East Tennessee, Johnson City, TN

“Smokey Joe” Peoples (Lead Vocals, Rhythm Guitar) has been writing and singing songs for over thirty years. Smokey Joe's career as a singer-songwriter began in 1983 as the primary creative force behind the Wisteria String Band, which was the house band for Florida Public Radio's WUWF Radio Live program "On the Road" for over four years. Those who have seen him perform delight in his folksy, melodic voice and harmonic guitar playing. The content of his songs often make an audience laugh, cry and feel many emotions in between.

Chelsea Lorraine Goodman (Lead Vocals, Egg) has been blowing away audiences with her mature singing talent at the age of only fifteen. She is a force to be reckoned with and a favorite of anyone who hears her perform. She is a “straight A” sophomore with the local version of “American Idol” title under her belt.

Darryl Goodman (Bass) Chelsea's Father, broke out of his “just for fun” six-string guitar playing to push Chelsea into a singing career. It is a special thrill for him to be performing with his daughter.

Tom Rogers (Harmonica, Vocals) started his career in 1976 working at Jerec Records for country and blues artists. At that time he recorded a song for Maureen McGovern. He then joined a 7 piece band called Heavy Country doing country and blues. They were picked up by Warner Brother's recording artist Big Al Downing and toured with him until 1987. Since then he has played with Little Feat, Danny Gatton, Roy Buchanan, Nitty Gritty Dirt Band, New Riders of the Purple Sage, Doc and Merle Watson, Cleve Francis, LAW, Red Steagal, Johnny Williams, Vassar Clements, Jackson Crossing, Sheb Wooley, The Poindexters, Merle Kilgore and Bobby Thompson.

Lonny Finley (Lead Guitar, Mandolin, Vocals) graduated with a Master's Degree in Music Education and was a founding member of the Celtic band, Henri's Notions. He was also a member of the Wisteria String Band and performed on the WUWF Radio Live program “On the Road” with Smokey Joe Peoples for over four years. Currently, In addition to playing with the Smokey Joe Show, he is the Director of Bands and Professor of Music at King College in Bristol, TN.

George Brasington (Drums) is a jack-of-all-trades who enjoys gardening and playing drums. Along with his family, George lives in Celso, NC in a completely off-grid, earthen house he has built himself.

“Little Buildings” is becoming very popular at WGWG. We have been taking requests daily for cuts!”

- Helen Pack - Morning DJ at WGWG 88.3 Gardner-Webb University, Boiling Springs, NC
